

SMARTPLAY at NASPL 2013

Smartplay presented an exciting new product, the OriginPortal at the NASPL '13 conference in Providence, RI. This innovative system instantly distributes drawing results in either still or animated form to social media sites, TV and print media with a click of a button. Executive Vice President, Tom Markert and Sales and Marketing Associate, Mariana Mokritski attended the annual conference. They found the show very successful and well attended, meeting with many existing and prospect clients.
